

The following relationships are based on provided requirements:

- The table relationship between concessions and customers is a one to many.
- * a receipt_id can have only one customer (a receipt will only be in one persons pocket argument)
 - * a customer_id can and will likely have multiple receipt_id (refills and peanut M&M's).

